Income limitations

Potential recipients must submit a copy of Page 1&2 of the Federal Tax return to be considered. Each child living in the household may receive a scholarship to play. Any Saginaw County resident is eligible provided their income is below the listed thresholds.

# Of persons in Household	Taxable Income Maximum (1.25)
1	$14,850.00
2	$20,025.00
3	$25,200.00
4	$30,375.00
5	$35,550.00
6	$40,725.00
7	$45,912.00
8	$51,112.00
Each Additional person adds	$ 5,200.00

Awards can range up to $110 for recreational players and up to $200 for travel players.

Scholarships for travel players are capped at $200.00 which will be taken off the end of the monthly payments set up through the online system. The uniform kit for Travel Players is not included in the scholarship. Each Travel Player awarded a scholarship will pay for the uniform directly through the website. The remainder of the Travel fee will be paid by the player at $100.00 per month until balance is paid, after the scholarship amount is deducted.

Scholarship allowed for Recreation Players will include the entire player fee currently in force. Scholarship MAY also include the jersey, socks, and shin guards. Additional items are only available if the income is towards the lower limit of the scale above.

Please return completed application and copy of tax return to:
